Here are 101 ways to save money on your wedding:

1. Set a budget and stick to it.

This is the most important step in saving money on your wedding. Once you know how much you can afford to spend, you can start making informed decisions about where to cut costs.

2. Have a shorter guest list.

The more guests you have, the more expensive your wedding will be. Consider inviting only your closest family and friends to keep your costs down.

3. Choose a less expensive venue.

There are many beautiful and affordable venues out there. Don't be afraid to look outside of the box and consider non-traditional venues like parks, museums, or even your own backyard.

4. Get married during the off-season.

Weddings are typically more expensive during peak season (May-October). If you're willing to get married during the off-season, you can save a significant amount of money.

5. Host your wedding on a weekday.

Weekends are more popular and expensive for weddings. If you're able to get married on a weekday, you can save money on your venue and other vendors.

6. DIY your decorations.

There are many ways to DIY your wedding decorations. You can find tutorials online or in craft stores. With a little creativity, you can create beautiful decorations for a fraction of the cost of buying them.

7. Ask friends and family for help.

Your friends and family are likely to be more than willing to help you with your wedding. Ask them to help you with tasks like setting up decorations, serving food, or taking pictures.

8. Borrow items from friends and family.

If you don't want to DIY your decorations, see if you can borrow items from friends and family. This can save you a lot of money on rentals.

9. Rent your wedding dress.

Renting your wedding dress is a great way to save money. You can find beautiful dresses at a fraction of the cost of buying them.

10. Buy your wedding dress online.

There are many reputable online retailers that sell wedding dresses. You can find beautiful dresses at a fraction of the cost of buying them in a store.

11. Choose a less expensive wedding cake.

The wedding cake is a big expense, but it doesn't have to be. There are many ways to save money on your cake, such as choosing a smaller cake, a less elaborate design, or a non-traditional flavor.
