The Evidence

There is a lot of evidence to suggest that Funke and Mike are married. For example, they have been spotted wearing matching wedding bands on several occasions. They have also been seen together at numerous events, including weddings and parties. In addition, Funke has referred to Mike as her "husband" on several occasions.

One of the most convincing pieces of evidence is a video that was posted on social media in 2016. In the video, Funke and Mike are seen getting married in a traditional Nigerian ceremony. The video was later removed from social media, but it has since been reposted by several fans.

The Reasons

There are several reasons why Funke and Mike might keep their relationship a secret. One possibility is that they want to protect their privacy. They may not want their personal lives to become the subject of public scrutiny.

Another possibility is that they are not yet ready to publicly announce their relationship. They may want to wait until they are more established in their careers or until they have been together for a longer period of time.

Whatever the reason, it is clear that Funke and Mike are a very private couple. They have been able to keep their relationship a secret for many years, and they show no signs of slowing down.
